Sri H. SIDDAVEERAPPA.—Sir, Sri Hutchmasty Gowda had mentioned something about the recognition of the Opposition party.

Sri B. P. GANGADHAR.—May I raise discussion on my subject? The Chair may give the Ruling tomorrow. If you start reading it, it will take 20 minutes. Instead, I must be permitted to introduce my subject. Otherwise, I am prepared even to be ordered out, when I will have a chance to plead with my Constituency my helplessness.

ಆದಕ್ಕೋಸ್ಕರ ಇನ್ನು ಹೆಚ್ಚುಕಾಲ ವ್ಯಯ ಮಾಡದೆ, ನನಗೆ ನನ್ನ ಟೌನಿಗೆ ಸಂಬಂಧಪಟ್ಟ ವಿಷಯವನ್ನು ಎತ್ತಲು ಅವಕಾಶ ಕೊಡದಿದ್ದರೆ ಪ್ರೊಟೆಸ್ಟ್ ಮಾಡಿ ಸತ್ಯಾಗ್ರಹ ಮಾಡುತ್ತೇನೆ.

(Hon. Member Sri B. P. Gangadhar walked to the aisle and sat along the aisle of the House).

Sri H. SIDDAVEERAPPA.—I have been standing to say something.

Sri N. A. CHANNE GOWDA.—Is the House in order since Hon. Member Sri Gangadhar is staging 'dharana'?

Sri G. CHANDRAKANTH.—The House is not in order. I personally feel that the House should be adjourned. The decision on the position of the Opposition Party should be postponed.

Sri D. B. KALMANKAR.—The House should be adjourned as it was not in order or the subject of Sri Gangadhar may be taken up.

Sri H. SIDDAVEERAPPA.—Give some ruling on the main Opposition Party.

Mr. SPEAKER.—Obviously I cannot jump over the business. It can be taken up next time.

Sri D. B. KALMANKAR.—A promise may be given to Sri Gangadhar that his subject will be taken up now.

Sri N. A. CHANNE GOWDA.—No business can be transacted now as the House is not in order.

Sri S. SIVAPPA.—Sri Gangadhar is agitated over acute water scarcity in Tumkur Town and he is awaiting a discussion on it for the last several days. The half-an-hour discussion on it has been adjourned twice for want of time. Sri Gangadhar represents Tumkur Constituency and it is but right that on every occasion he should agitate for it as nothing has materialised. He is expecting a reply from the Government. But so far the Government has not cared even to reply and give an assurance. Government should give an assurance to him as to what steps they are going to take to relieve water scarcity in Tumkur Town. If that assurance is given, we can request Sri Gangadhar to come back to his seat. So let the Government reply and give an assurance.

Sri H.N. NANJE GOWDA.—According to Rule 31, business included in the List of Business alone should be taken. There is a Call Attention Notice by me. If any preference is shown to any other business or business not included in the Agenda, I shall also have to follow suit.

Sri S. SIVAPPA.—Is the House in order?
